Kampung Naga is a part of the village of Neglasari. It is the Selawu district, regency of Tasikmalaya, West Java. The peaceful and green village is only 500 metres from the main road between Garyt and Tasikmalaya. To reach the place, people need to go down a stairway of 350 steps. It leads from the side of highway to place of Ciwulan river. The village is located on a hillside by the river. Most of Kampung Naga villagers are either farmers or farm labourers. They live very simple. They do not demand much. For example, the rich man in the village lives in a house which is not different from any other in the village. There is no television set, no bed with mattress, no sofa, not even a cupboard. They do not paint their house either. There are many taboos in the Kampung Naga society, known as 'tilu basa' (three taboos): pamali (advice not doing certain conduct), teu hade (prohibition to commit bad things), and cadu (prevention of destroying environment).

THE PRINCE AND HIS BEST FRIENDS

Once upon a time, there lived a kind young prince named Jonathan. He was loved, and adored by his people. His two close friends were Peter Piper, the servant of the palace and Franklin Greedy, the Son of an Aristocrat.

One day, the Prince, Peter Piper, and Franklin Greedy were walking through the forest. Suddenly a group of bandits attacked the three boys near an old house. They entered the old house and blockaded the gate and the doors. The three boys were trapped inside the house.

Franklin was very terrified and asked the Prince to surrender immediately, but Peter was not afraid. He urged and supported the Prince not to give up. The Prince decided not to surrender because he realized that he would become a hostage for the bandits to ask for ransom to his father. It made Peter suspicious about Franklin's behaviour, so he quietly made up a plan for him and the Prince to escape.

Early at dawn, Franklin opened the front gate and unlocked the doors. The bandits entered the house in search of the Prince. When they came to the room where the Prince was supposed to be sleeping, no one was there. Suddenly they heard a horserunning outside the house and saw over the window that Peter Piper and the Prince were riding away on one of the bandit's horses.

It turns out, Peter Piper sneaked out of the house and waited in the yard, while the Prince was hiding behind the house. The bandits were very angry at Franklin and took him with them while the Prince and Peter went safely going back to the Capital.
